1. The lengthy specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 1-48 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-48 of copending Application No. 09/609,553. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the current claims 1-48 and copending '553 claims 1-48 are identical except that the current claims recite a "listing search transaction" where the copending '553 claims recite a "listing transaction". However, this fails to distinguish between the two sets of claims as the specific type of transaction is interpreted merely as a type of information. The presence of "search" does not further define the method or reading and processing of the document.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 1-48 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Greene 4,724,309. Greene discloses providing a user form, i.e. the check of figures 3 and 4. The form discloses coded information in the form of OCR codes, magnetic codes and handwriting (column 2 lines 58-66, column 4 lines 18-22) which includes at least a bank ID number, an account number, a check sequence number (column 4 lines 7-10). There is disclosed a signature line, i.e. user identification in a zone, above the position identifier "PAY TO THE ORDER" (column 5 lines 58-68) and a position/zone for hand written dollar amount next to the position identifier "$" (column 6 line 1). There is disclosed an optical reader 22 (column 4 lines 25-30) and a scanning means 38 (column 4 lines 45-55) for scanning the face of the check, the signals from the scanning means are then processed by a processor 46, i.e. computer (column 4 lines 62-65). Greene does not disclose that the document is related to a "listing search transaction". However, Official Notice is taken that documents "filled out" as means for posting an inquiry into a computer system are old and well known. It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to post an inquiry into the system/method of Greene by using a known inquiry form. This would allow for a person to fill out a form in handwriting and for the form to be converted to an electronic record, thus making the system easy and convenient to use.
